Airport Operations at SFO

San Francisco International Airport is one of Singapore Airlines' key U.S. gateways, connecting passengers to Singapore and onward destinations across Asia and beyond.

At the International Terminal, travelers can access:

- Full-service check-in counters
- Premium class check-in areas
- Self-service kiosks
- Baggage drop and claim services
- Security screening access
- Boarding gate assistance
- Same-day flight rebooking support

Airport staff are available to help with travel disruptions, schedule changes, and special service requests.

Baggage Services & Travel Support

If baggage is delayed, damaged, or missing, report immediately at the baggage service desk in the International Terminal. Representatives can assist with:

- ✓ Lost baggage claims
- ✓ Damaged baggage reports
- ✓ Extra baggage purchase
- ✓ Oversized or special items
- ✓ Real-time baggage tracking assistance

For international travel, ensure all required documents, visas, and identification are verified before departure.

Hours of Operation

Airport Counters: Open according to scheduled flight departures

Reservation Phone Line: Hours may vary

Online Services: Available 24/7

Passengers are encouraged to confirm flight schedules and counter availability before arriving at the airport.

Travel Tips for San Francisco Passengers

- ✓ Arrive at least 3 hours before international departure
- ✓ Complete online check-in to reduce airport wait times
- ✓ Review baggage allowance prior to travel
- ✓ Verify terminal and gate information in advance
- ✓ Use official Singapore Airlines contact numbers to avoid third-party service charges

SFO is a large international airport, so allow extra time for check-in and security procedures.
